NOTIFICATION

No. 20478 /PW, Bhubaneswar, dated the 5th of May, 2010.

Sanction of compassionate grant is governed by the Orissa Civil Services (Compassionate Grant) Rules, 1964 read with Finance Department Resolution No.53885/F dt.2.11.2001 which provides for compassionate grant to the Police Personnel who die or sustain injuries on duty due to violence caused by left wing extremists. This benefit is restricted to only cases of death and injuries leading to permanent incapacitation, loss of two legs or two eyes or one leg & one eye or other limbs and permanent total disablement.

With a view to raise the morale of Police Personnel engaged in countering left wing extremism, Government have decided that it will bear the cost of all medical care in case of Police personnel injured in Maoist Operations. The journey expenses incurred for undergoing treatment may be allowed with the recommendation of D.M.E.T. and approval of D.G. of Police in respect of such Police personnel engaged in anti-naxal operations. In such emergent situations, the cost of hiring of vehicles/helicopters can be recouped out of SRE with the approval of the SRE standing committee. The treatment in Government/private hospitals will be allowed as per convenience and emergent need to save the life of the employee in a life and death situation. The entire cost of the treatment will be reimbursed on production of bills of such Government/Private Hospital duly signed by the CDMO/CMO of such Hospitals and countersigned by D.G. & I. G. of Police, Orissa, Cuttack and after the insurance amount is exhausted.

The Government after careful consideration have also decided that in relaxation of all the existing rules/Government instructions regarding reimbursement of medical claims, the entire cost of treatment including hospitalization both in Government and private hospitals will be borne by the State Government as per recommendation of DMET and countersigned by the D.G. & I.G. of Police or a Senior Police Officer not below the rank of I.G. of Police duly authorized by the D.G. & I.G. of Police for police personnel who have retired but have sustained injuries during Maoist operations, while in service. The cost of all such treatment including that involving prolonged treatment for the injuries sustained during the service period will be fully reimbursed on actuals, on production of bills of such Government and private hospitals subject to certification by the CDMO/CMO of concerned Govt./Private Hospitals countersigned by the Superintendent of Police of concerned District and by the D.G. & I.G. of Police or a Senior Police Officer not below the rank of I.G. of Police duly authorized by the D.G. & I.G. of Police.

This has been concurred in by Health & Family Welfare Department vide their UOR No.23/H dt.17.06.2009 and Finance Department vide their UOR No.140-CS-III dt.21.08.2009.

This supersedes the Home (Special Section) Department Notification No.363 dated 18.01.2008.
