- (c) 10% vacancies in the rank of Fireman shall be reserved for eligible Home Guards as per Home Department letter No.516/CD dt.16.03.1995. They will be eligible against the Reserve Vacancy under the respective category to which they belong i.e. U.R., S.E.B.C., S.C., S.T.

The reservation rules and model roster shall be followed state cadre wise.

9. INSTRUCTIONS :

- (a) It shall be the responsibility of the D. G., Fire Service and C.G., Home Guards and the Fire Stations where a recruitment centre is established, to extend all the necessary assistance to the Selection Board and its nominated committee wherever necessary. The local District Superintendent of Police shall also render necessary infrastructural and man-power assistance wherever requested by the Selection Board.
- (b) All the applications received will be registered preferably in the format given in Form-II and the Application Registration Number will be intimated to the Applicants. Registration number will also be written on the backside of both the loose photographs of the applicant received with the application, in order to avoid mixing up. The various columns in Form-II will be filled up for computerisation to generate various reports and returns needed later.

- (c) The applications received will be processed by the Selection Board in terms of the provisions of this Recruitment Order. Whenever the application or the candidature is rejected, the applicant will be informed of the reasons for rejection under proper signature and seal, on the face of the application along with the date in which the rejection is communicated. These details may also be entered for record in the 'Remarks' column in the computer format of Form-II.
  - (d) Since there will be one selection Board, dates for commencement of rallies for the tests will be fixed on different dates for different Centres, according to the convenience of the Board. If the candidates constitute a huge number, they may be called in a segregated (staggered) manner to avoid overcrowding. The candidates may be given a clear one-month advance notice, excluding the anticipated time of 7 days for such communication to reach them. The Admit Card (Part-B of the Application form) may be issued, accordingly.
  - (e) Production of Admit Card at the time of rally shall be insisted upon for their photo-identity. Without this, no candidate should be allowed to appear in the measurement and other tests.
  - (f) As soon as the candidates report for rallies, their signatures with date may be obtained on the computer printed list of the candidates assigned to that centre. The signatures too may be tallied with those on the admit card.
  - (g) The aforesaid stages of recruitment (see sub-paragraph 10.1 to 10.3 10 above) may be followed one after the other in that order without any break or discontinuity. The identity, with reference to photograph on the Admit Card, should be verified at every stage of the measurements and tests.
  - (h) The marks awarded to various candidates or the results of tests of that day may be published on the notice boards on that day itself, at least at 3 different places within the Recruitment Centre, immediately. The marks/results, may be displayed under the dated signatures of all the Members of the Selection Board along with their names in block capital letters below their signatures.

- (i) " A copy of the marks/results published may be sent on that day itself to the D.G.& I.G. of Police, Fire Service, Orissa, Cuttack by name by registered post or by Special Messenger in a sealed cover ".
- (j) The entire process of recruitment, (except the preparation of combined Merit list), may preferably be conducted and completed at the recruitment centres only.
- (k) All the marks to the candidates may be awarded by the Selection Board by consensus.
- (l) The Selection Board may select the persons, in conducting the various tests in the process of recruitment. The persons of proven integrity can be drawn from any source considered suitable by the Board. They shall neither have been found guilty and punished in any departmental proceedings nor any criminal proceedings pending against them at the time of their selection to assist the Board.
- (m) All the working sheets, result sheets, registers and other papers and documents (including the Computer soft copy) may be retained by the Board in a sealed cover. for the period as per the practice followed by them.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the aforesaid instructions, the Selection Board may decide the procedure of the recruitment process of Fireman for preparation of the Select List.

10. Advertisement of vacancies for recruitment and inviting of applications:

10.1.1 Anticipated vacancies shall be limited to those, where the Firemen are retiring within the calendar year on attaining the age of superannuation. The anticipated vacancies will also include the newly created posts. The existing vacancies shall be added to anticipated ones to arrive at the total vacancies for notification. The reservation break up of total vacancies shall be indicated unambiguously at the time of advertisement for recruitment.

10.2 The vacancies shall be advertised by the Board in at least two dailies having a wider circulation in the State on two consecutive days. The advertisement should clearly mention the total number of vacancies, their reservation in different categories of persons, the eligibility criteria as prescribed in the Order. If considered, advisable by the Board it may also be specified in the advertisement that documentary evidence, (except High School Certificate and Marks Sheet), in support of eligibility need not be submitted along with the application. It shall be the responsibility of applicants to satisfy themselves about their eligibility under this Order before sending the applications. They shall be called upon to produce, in support of their eligibility and otherwise, all the relevant documents in original, with at least three self-certified xerox copies of each, at the approximate time, but before the preparation of merit list by the Board. Those who fail to establish their eligibility shall be disqualified. Candidates may, therefore, undertake the recruitment tests at their risk and responsibility with regard to their eligibility. Selection Committee of the recruitment centre, to be constituted for each centre by the Board or for more than one centre, wherever necessary, may verify eligibility of the short-listed candidates of that centre with reference to original certificates after most of the examinations and tests have been completed or as decided by the Board. During such verification at least three self certified (by the candidates) xerox copies of all the relevant certificates shall be collected and shall be attested (means authentication) by an officer, competent to attest, under proper signature and seal. One attested copy shall be retained in the records of recruitment. The other two shall be appended to the respective applications, ultimately for forwarding them to the appointing authority.

- 10.3 Candidature shall be cancelled, if in the opinion of Selection Board he is found ineligible for consideration under the eligibility criteria prescribed in this Order.
- 10.4 All relevant original certificates of the other kinds like, sports achievements, NCC, Caste/Class, status of being a Home Guard, too shall be examined along with the eligibility certificates. Three self certified xerox copies of all such certificates shall also be collected after due authentication, as prescribed in sub-pāra 10.2 above, and for the same purpose.
- 10.5 No application, except in the case of candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes shall be considered unless it is accompanied by a Treasury Challan in original, showing payment into a Government Treasury in the appropriate Head of Account, an amount, as determined by the Board from time to time, as fees for application. The appropriate Head of Account shall be mentioned in the advertisement of vacancies in the newspapers.

10.6 Application shall be submitted in the format enclosed in Annexure-I of this Order or any other format decided by the Board.

10.7 Self-certified xerox copies of the testimonials or certificates submitted by the candidates shall be deemed to be the conclusive proof of the fact of submission of such testimonials or certificates by such candidates for the recruitment.

11. Recruitment process:
